

Linda Loring Nature Foundation 2017 Photo Contest

In celebration of our 10th year of operations, the Linda Loring Nature Foundation is hosting its 1st Nature Photo Contest. Everyone is invited to submit a photo (or several!) no matter your skill level! The 2017 theme "Let Nature In" is meant to excite current fans and encourage new audiences to experience and explore nature at the Linda Loring Nature Foundation. We are looking for photos that do just that, inspire and engage! The contest will run from Memorial Day until August 4th. The winners will be announced August 18th. Prizes will be awarded to the top three in each category.

Categories:

- Youth (age 12 and under)
- Teen (age 13 – 18)
- Adult categories:
 - Landscape
 - With people
 - Animal
 - Plant

Guidelines:

- Contest Starts May 27th, Memorial Day weekend
- The deadline for the contest is Friday, August 4th
- All entries must be taken on or of the Linda Loring Nature Foundation
- Images can be black and white or color
- Images can be taken recently or in the past
- You may enter in more than one category
- By submitting a photo to the LLNF photo contest, you agree to release the image under a Creative Commons License

Submit entries via email to: info@llnf.org

Please include the following in the email:

Name:

Age:

Image Description (Max. 100 words):

Contact info (mailing address, email, phone number):

Please attach your image entry to your email, and make sure it conforms to the following criteria:

- A minimum 300dpi
- In one of the allowable formats – JPEG, PNG, TIFF
- Winning entries will be displayed as 8x10 framed photos.

For more information visit the LLNF Web Site: llnf.org